

TEXLA Energy Partners

Gain consistent, scalable access to the products you need, delivered on-time

About

TEXLA Energy Partners is a strategic sourcing and distribution company, specializing in medical supplies, commodities, janitorial, office and paper products. We bring our full network, capabilities, and years of experience to provide robust supply chain management to our clients to help them turn challenges into opportunities.

Our most recent accomplishment has been in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. We combined our strategic manufacturer partnerships with our extensive experience in international & domestic distribution logistics to provide millions of COVID-19 antigen rapid tests, medical devices, and supplies throughout the United States.
